REFERENCES

The Chicago Manual of Style
(16th edition, 2010; corresponds to an author-date-page system of citation in the text.)

American Chemical Society (ACS) (from the ACS Style Guide, 2010; a numbered list may be alphabetized or arranged in the order in which items are cited in the text. If the list is numbered by order of citation, corresponding text numbers begin with 1 and continue consecutively throughout the thesis.)

