

Diane Brandt Scholarship for Women

Guidelines for Programs

Diane Brandt, a 1961 ISU alumna, established an endowed fund in 2010 to serve many generations of ISU women in science, engineering, math and other fields in which women have traditionally been underrepresented. The fellowship honors her academic achievement, community leadership, state service, and life achievements. It is another valuable scholarship created by a woman, for women.

The funds for this scholarship are administered by the ISU Foundation. The number available will vary each year.

Student Eligibility

To be nominated for the fellowship, a student must meet the following:

- Woman admitted as full into a PhD program in science, mathematics, agriculture, and engineering
- Enrolled as a first semester PhD student

Scholarship Conditions

- The scholarship is for one year only in the amount of $5,000 ($2,500 for fall and spring) and will be entered directly on each recipient's account by the Graduate College. The scholarship is in addition to all other funding received.
- The nomination narrative (see page two) and the student's application file will be reviewed by a committee of faculty (via DocFinity) immediately after the following deadlines: February 15th, March 15th and April 1st. Nominations that arrive after the above deadlines will automatically be placed in the pool for the next review dates. Nominations will not be accepted after April 1st.
- Preference will be given to programs where women are strongly underrepresented.
